

Fresh Off Of A World Championship, Houston Astros® Owner Jim Crane Enters Safety Market

Crane Safety™ Global Headquarters Launches in Houston, Texas, To Keep Businesses Compliant and People Safe

HOUSTON, TEXAS, USA, April 10, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- International businessman James R. Crane, Chairman and CEO of Crane Capital Group, Inc.; an investment management company he founded in 2006, announces the newly formed Crane Safety as his latest investment. At its core, Crane Safety was built to serve businesses and owners by providing products and onsite services helping them stay compliant, save time and keep their employees safe.

“We are extremely excited to announce the market entrance of Crane Safety,” Crane stated. “We took a long look at the market and saw that businesses were consistently underserved and overcharged. We want to change that by providing truly innovative solutions and a better client experience. This will lead to large opportunities in the market for Crane Safety’s long term, sustainable growth.”

Crane Safety supplies services and products like First Aid, Safety Supplies & Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), Automated External Defibrillators (AEDs), Eye-wash Stations, Fire Extinguishers and Training services onsite. This helps safety and Environmental Health & Safety (EHS) professionals to more efficiently manage their safety programs. Crane Safety delivers onsite, helping businesses stay compliant, save time, and keep their employees safe.

“We saw an unmet need in the market that we address with excellence,” said Tommy Thompson, President & CEO – Crane Safety. “Anyone who has spent time in the safety business understands the immense need for better service and technology. Technology is improving, and great customer service is the expectation. Our competitors keep raising prices without providing a better experience to clients. Our goal, is to provide our clients with best-in-class service and today’s technology, all at a fair price.”
