Walker has served in various high-profile positions with the brand, including his most recent role as vice president of operations, which he assumed in 2012. Walker's extensive inside knowledge of the bluefrog Plumbing + Drain has helped grow the brand into one of the most exciting franchise opportunities in the $100 billion plumbing industry.

"James is a highly competent and effective leader," says Gary Findley, CEO of bluefrog Plumbing + Drain. "We're looking forward to watching him flourish in his new role as bluefrog Plumbing + Drain continues to rapidly expand across the country."

Appealing to existing plumbers looking for an easier business model, as well as entrepreneurs new to the plumbing industry, bluefrog Plumbing + Drain anticipates another year of strong growth nationwide.

"There's no question that bluefrog Plumbing + Drain is resonating with entrepreneurs who are looking for a proven concept in a growing industry," Walker says. "We have experienced unprecedented system-wide growth, and we project that this year our system-wide revenues will be double what they were the year before."
