

William Gilbert Lightner recognized as Religious and Spiritual Services Professional of the Year 2018

William Gilbert Lightner has been awarded this year's Religious and Spiritual Services Professional of the Year by Strathmore's Who's Who.

MARIETTA, GA, UNITED STATES, April 11, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Recognized for his years of dedicated hard work in the fields of religion and spirituality, William Lightner was selected from over 1,100 shortlisted individuals to take the 2018 title.

The author of End Time Prophecy Made Easy, Lightner left a successful career in finance to pursue religion and serve God as an evangelist. A former military man and a graduate of Judson University, Illinois, Lightner has subsequently traveled the world, personally assisting hundreds of individuals in finding comfort in Christ.

"I traveled tens of thousands of miles on a journey which took me to 28 different countries over the course of four years," explains Lightner.

"I've addressed vast crowds," he continues, "often numbering as many as several thousand at a time. I taught people to acknowledge fellowship, as well as faith through prayer, so that they may live a more sound life as a follower of Christ."

Strathmore's Who's Who is an annual biographical publication which profiles and features successful individuals from the fields of business, education, medicine, research, healthcare, law, engineering, government, sciences, and the arts.
