

Prestige Decanters Gives Back

Liquor Decanter Company Plants Trees for Each Decanter Purchased

LOUISVILLE, KY, UNITED STATES, April 11, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Prestige Decanters, a liquor decanter company specializing in handcrafted glass and wood decanters for home bars, is spreading awareness about their philanthropic side. For every decanter sold, Prestige plants a tree, hence the motto "Buy One Plant One." Not only do they contribute to our population of trees, but the company wants to get the word out about other organizations consumers can get involved with on a more personal level.

Of the company's collaboration, CEO Addison Paulin said, "Prestige decanters are built on solid wooden foundations. To be blunt, we do it because it makes our products better, and that's what our consumers deserve. At the same time, we're also environmentally friendly. We don't just take and take and take. At Prestige, we give back. To offset wood use and help restore U.S. forests, we make a donation to our not-for-profit partner who will plant a tree right here in America."

To help their consumers gain awareness of where they can personally volunteer, whether it's time or money, Prestige Decanters has made a list of other tree-centered organizations worth your time. These charities include: One Tree Planted, Trees Louisville, American Forests, National Forests Foundation, International Tree Foundation, Tree Aid, Plant a Billion Trees, Trees for the Future, Global Trees Campaign, Trees for Cities, and Trees for Life.
