

Top European VC Firm Mangrove Capital Partners invests in DreamTeam

DreamTeam, announces today an investment from Mangrove Capital Partners, a major European venture capital company.

CAYMAN ISLANDS, UNITED KINGDOM, April 12, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- April 12, 2018 – DreamTeam, the world's first infrastructure platform and payment gateway for esports and gaming, announces today an investment from Mangrove Capital Partners, a major European venture capital company.

Mangrove Capital Partners has a portfolio of over 100 prospective companies. Since the company's establishment in 2000, it has raised over $1Bn in venture funding that has helped boost the tech industry and open new horizons for many entrepreneurs. With a startup focused strategy, the company invests heavily in early-stage businesses all over the world. Among the most successful investments are Wix (NASDAQ: WIX) currently valued at $3,7 billion, and Skype, which was bought in 2005 by eBay for $3.1 billion.

Commenting on the investment, Alexander Kokhanovskyy, DreamTeam CEO and Founder said: "DreamTeam continues to evolve esports and develop the infrastructure platform for 300M gamers and payment gateway for the #1 sports of the future. We are planning our future ICO already, and Mangrove is a leader in this field, so I am delighted to welcome them to our journey".

In addition, David Waroquier, Partner at Mangrove Capital, joins the DreamTeam Advisory Board. His experience and deep-rooted insights will be invaluable to the explosive growth of the project.

"With his 17 years of experience in esports, Alexander is amongst the most connected professional in the industry. And we have immediately been impressed by his passion, his drive and deep understanding of the essential needs of the gaming ecosystem and gamers that want to develop and join competitive team plays. We are excited to work with Alexander and the DreamTeam crew in building up their esports infrastructure platform globally. In addition to providing an all-in-one solution for hundreds of millions of gamers to build, grow, manage and monetize their teams, DreamTeam has the potential to create the de-facto payment gateway for the esports industry by leveraging blockchain and smart contracts technologies. The combination of an integrated esports platform with the ease and transparency of token-based smart contracts make it probably the most powerful and scalable esports solution available globally", stated David Waroquier.

About DreamTeam:

DreamTeam is the world's first infrastructure platform and payment gateway for esports and gaming. With the unlocking of blockchain and smart contract technologies, it becomes possible to create a one of a kind platform and payment gateway for players, teams, tournaments, and sponsors.
