Recently launched, the search for global Kayser agents is on. Currently, there are 130 Kayser boutiques globally with Kayser taking 50-years to perfect their boutique model. Kayser provides all agents, distributors with the merchandise, marketing, and floor plans for establishing boutiques. There are no requirement to pay licensing fees or royalties.

Kayser On-Line: Agents can also sell Kayser products from their own website. All digital images, video content and marketing is provided, along with an Amazon affiliation for the world.

Requirements to become a Kayser partner include selling the company's merchandise either in a traditional store environment, wholesale or online. The right to sell Kayser products is on a 5-year term, with the option to renew, and all purchases are FOB China and invoiced Hong Kong.

While Kayser doesn't charge a royalty on their products, they do stipulate that all merchandise purchases occur in their factories.
