

Rage Room Served Over 100 Groups Since Its Grand Opening 5 Weeks Ago

Destruction Therapy gaining traction as corporate team building event

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, UNITED STATES, April 19, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sin City Smash, a recreational rage room facility in Las Vegas celebrated their 100th group on March 23rd. The premier Las Vegas attraction only had its grand opening 5 weeks ago. Tourists from all over the world and locals are checking out what all the rage is about! Rage Rooms are quickly becoming a leading solution for stress relief.

The 100th group was Zappos Order Verification department who was looking for a fun, exciting and unique thing to do for their March team building event. The group of 20 people enjoyed themselves as groups of 4 to 6 people went in and smashed to their heart's content! As a special, each group got to smash a 60" TV using their weapon of choice. Each session included an abundance of common objects to destroy such as computers, tables, dishes, and anything else imaginable! People got to physically act out on their daily emotions and stress without worrying about the mess. Sin City Smash took care of everything!

"We celebrated our Zappos Team Building here, and they did so much to make it a memorable and enjoyable event for us! This was so much fun, unique, and wonderfully executed experience for the entire team. If you're looking for a fun way to relieve stress or just into breaking things with a group of friends this is a legally safe way to get your fix in." ~ Shayna L., Zappos employee and Sin City Smash Customer
