global technology services firm, announced today it is a bronze sponsor of ServiceNow®'s flagship Knowledge18 Conference in Las Vegas. The Knowledge18 conference is scheduled from May 7th to 10th at The Venetian in Las Vegas, Nevada. Aspire will be presenting its ITOM Workshop in Booth #1222.

Knowledge conferences are once in a year power-packed events focused on IT professionals to learn, create, share and discuss their experiences. This year it hosts 18,000 attendees, 300+ breakout sessions, 120+ hands on labs with 85% of sessions led by ServiceNow's customers.

Aspire is sponsoring Knowledge conferences for the third consecutive time this year. Aspire focuses on IT Operations Management (ITOM) in Knowledge18, and will host ITOM Workshops for the visitors to learn and share their challenges and experiences on various areas including Discovery, Configuration Management (CMDB), Hybrid Cloud Management & Governance, Predictive Analytics, AI, and so on.

"We are very happy to sponsor Knowledge18 and excited to meet the industry thought leaders in the conference and discuss the challenges/best practices that are shaping up the ITSM, ITOM and ITBM domains. We are also thrilled to host ITOM Workshops for the attendees to enable them meet today's Enterprise Service Management needs using ServiceNow" said Ananth Krishnamoorthy, Director of Converged Infrastructure Support and ServiceNow Implementation.

Aspire invites attendees to its booth #1222 to participate in their ITOM Workshop and take away the best practices and exciting gifts back home. Registrations for the workshop are open for K18 attendees online.
