

Active Sexual Lifestyle? New Digital Health App Pairs with Social Sharing to Reduce the Spread of STDs

CheckMate Healthcare App Offers More Options for Preventative STD Testing. Demand for Tele-medicine and Digital Health Options Steadily Grows.

BOCA RATON, FL, USA, April 26, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Are medical apps the new tool to changing the future of healthcare? CheckMate Healthcare thinks so. The launch of CheckMate Healthcare's new app is one of the latest tools for people to take control of preventative care. Available for iOS and Android, the app offers CheckMate Home and CheckMate Lab to deliver STD testing right to your door. Emerging as an easy and affordable e-Health testing alternative.

“We want everyone saying “Do you use CheckMate?” and “I just sent you my CheckMate results. It’s easier to talk about an app than it is to talk about STDs””

Marc Schonberger

With 48% of millennials using condoms “never” or “rarely” and STDs accounting for $16 billion in healthcare costs, CheckMate provides treatment and confidential results sharing options for better sexual health in a growing mobile lifestyle.

CheckMate is empowering people and making the STD conversation easier. “We want everyone saying “Do you use CheckMate?” and “I just sent you my CheckMate results.” says CheckMate founder Marc Schonberger. “It’s easier to talk about an app than it is to talk about STDs” continues Schonberger.

This moves the conversation from the focus on treatment to the focus on prevention. Sexual health can be complicated but getting tested doesn’t have to be. Download the app, pick your test, ($70 to $229) return your kit and get accurate results typically in 48 hours. Test results negative? Share your “Gold Pass” and let your partner know you’re STD free, with a text, email, link in your dating profile. Need a prescription? CheckMate provides free tele-medicine consults and support for positive STD results. Unlike any competitor, CheckMate is the market’s first shareable STD app, and will be indispensable for life in the world of modern dating.

Users are encouraged to share the app and get $20 off the Total Check with code LAUNCH on CheckMate's site. The growing MedTech phenomenon is more than a trend, and with high insurance deductibles, self-directed testing is prime to grow.
