Europe emerged as a major region for coffee makers market, due to increased demand of premium coffee products such as 'Gourmet Coffee' in Western European countries such as the U.K., France, Germany and Spain.

The global coffee makers market is expected to grow with increasing coffee consumption, rising urban population, increasing e-commerce retail sales, increasing disposable income and accelerating economic growth. Key trends of this market includes increasing premium coffee shops in China, rising preference of gourmet coffee in America and growing shift towards fully automatic coffee makers. However, there are some factors which can hinder growth of the market including increasing prices of raw materials and stringent regulations.
