

SHABAZZ SPEAKS TO HAWAII: RACE RELATIONS IN THE UNITED STATES

Malik Zulu Shabazz keynotes race relations forum in Hawaii

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, May 3, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Invited by local activists and organizations, Attorney Malik Zulu Shabazz will keynote an upcoming forum in Hawaii on Saturday, May 5, 2018 at 7 pm (EST).

Some key points Attorney Shabazz will address are: (1) The legacies and lessons of Marcus Garvey and Barack Obama; (2) Housing in Hawaii; (3) Small business ownership and; (4) Networking for veterans and civilians. The forum will be webcast LIVE beginning 7 pm (EST) from the www.blackrightsmatter.org website. Malik Zulu Shabazz has a staunch message to deliver to the Islanders.

NAACP (Honolulu) President Alphonso Braggs is also invited along with others who are disturbed and have called for further dialogue to address current race relations in the United States.

Just over a week ago (April 18-22), Shabazz convened a 5-day National Black Men's Convention and Condemn Trump/Reparations White House Rally, which took place in front of the White House (Lafayette Park) – Washington, D.C.

Rally attendees were captivated and listened attentively as Shabazz passionately delivered his message: 'African Americans are confronted with a mélange of issues, including the widespread killing of primarily unarmed Black men, women and children by law enforcement; the troubling rise of bigotry, White privilege and nativism; racial profiling; police brutality; an increasingly
