THE PEOPLE'S VOICE

Jenkintown's Jeffrey Schaffer handles personal injury cases along with medical malpractice, social security disability, property damage, wrongful death, and product liability.

Approximately 300 people are killed in accidents involving police pursuits each year. Of that 300, roughly 30% of fatalities occur from those who aren't even involved in the pursuit.”

Marc Weinberg, Attorney

Recently, Jeffrey Schaffer helped a client settle a case involving a personal injury that she suffered during an auto accident involving a police car. The police officer made a U-turn striking the client's vehicle. The client suffered two cervical herniations and a ligament tear in her right shoulder. The client underwent surgery to her shoulder and neck.

According to research conducted by the University of Washington, approximately 300 people are killed in accidents involving police pursuits each year. Of that 300, roughly 30% of fatalities occur from those who aren't even involved in the pursuit. It is important to realize that these instances are common.

After the client suffered her injury, she reached out to Saffren & Weinberg to receive legal help on her case. Attorney Jeff Schaffer was happy to file a lawsuit to get the injured client the justice that she deserved. After a settlement conference with the court, Schaffer was able to resolve the case.
