About Bruce Edwin

Bruce Edwin began working in the music industry as a teenager, with the self publication of his own fanzine--turned magazine, subnormal; which covered most all genres of music, poetry, human rights, and later also film. With subnormal magazine, he toured the country multiple times with various bands, selling the publication city by city, gig by gig. It was also distributed world wide by Tower Records. Subnormal returned online last year at Hollywood Sentinel dot com. It will debut soon online with its own site.

Bruce Edwin went on to found Starpower Management, becoming one of the most sought after entertainment management boutique companies on the planet, known world-wide as manager of Michael Jackson guitarist David Williams, among other current stars including several Grammy Award Winners. Bruce also is president of Bruce Edwin Productions, a feature film production company, with 5 films currently in preparation, as well as its online comedic webisode; Hollyweird! which stars Moira Cue as well as a rotating cast of other celebrities. The company will be casting this summer for their next film, shooting in Hollywood.
