Palo Alto, CA – June 6, 2018 – The Radicati Group, Inc.’s latest in-depth study, “Corporate Web Security Market, 2018-2022” offers an analysis of the Corporate Web Security market. Web security is one of the most fundamental security solutions that an organization can deploy. Web security solutions are software, appliances, or cloud services that protect corporate users and networks from Web-based malware, and enable organizations to control employee behavior on the Internet, while preventing data loss.

The study provides market size, installed base and revenue market share by vendor, four-year forecasts, as well as detailed analysis of major players in the market, including Barracuda Networks, Clearswift, EdgeWave, Forcepoint, iboss, Kaspersky Lab, McAfee, Sophos, Symantec, Trend Micro, Trustwave, and Zscaler.

According to the study, the Corporate Web Security market continues to see strong revenue growth as organizations of all sizes invest in security solutions to protect themselves from a myriad of web-borne threats. The market is expected to grow from over $3.3 billion revenues in 2018, to over $5.7 billion in 2022.
