

Pennsylvania Corporate Whistleblower Center Now Urges A Construction Manager for A Firm That Builds Highways or Buildings for The Government to Call About Rewards If the Finished Building Has Costly Construction Defects

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, June 6, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Pennsylvania Corporate Whistleblower Center says, "We are urging a construction superintendent for a construction firm that builds any type of imaginable road, building or buildings for the US government to call us anytime at 866-714-6466 if the finished product turned over to the government had millions of dollars of construction defects, and if the government was never told about the problems. The financial rewards for this type of information could be in the hundreds of thousands of dollars or millions as we would like to explain anytime.

The types of construction defects-the Corporate Whistleblower Center is focused in on are engineering, structural, plumbing, electrical, mechanical systems, siding/envelope or roofing defects incorporated into a recently built federal government building, facility or buildings in Pennsylvania or anywhere in the US with a special focus on the following:

- * Freeways
- * VA Hospitals
- * Military Base Housing or Barracks
- * Military Administrative, Recreational or Logistics/Storage Buildings
- * Low Income Housing
- * Federal Courthouses
- * Postal Facilities
- * Special Department of Defense Building Projects
- * Federal Government Research Facilities

According to the group, "If you recently lost your job because you mentioned construction defects on a federally funded building or road project to your construction company bosses or you took your manager's advice and you said nothing about construction defects that will cost the federal government millions to repair-----why not call us at 866-714-6466 and let us explore the reward potential. Why sit on a potentially huge winning lotto ticket without ever knowing what it might be worth?"

Simple rules for a whistleblower from the Corporate Whistleblower Center: Do not go to the government first if you are a potential whistleblower with substantial proof of wrongdoing. The Pennsylvania Corporate Whistleblower Center says, "Major whistleblowers frequently go to the government thinking they will help. It's a huge mistake. Do not go to the news media with your whistleblower information. Public revelation of a whistleblower's information could destroy any prospect for a reward. Do not try to force a company/employer or individual to come clean about construction defects that could cost the government millions, significant Medicare fraud, overbilling the federal government for services never rendered, multi-million-dollar state or federal tax evasion, or a Pennsylvania based company falsely claiming to be a minority owned business to get preferential treatment on federal or state projects. Come to us first, tell us what type of information you have, and if we think it's sufficient, we will help you with a focus on you getting rewarded."

Unlike any group in the US the Corporate Whistleblower Center can assist a potential whistleblower with packaging or building out their information to potentially increase the reward potential. They will also provide the whistleblower with access to some of the most skilled whistleblower attorneys in the nation. For more information a possible whistleblower with substantial proof of wrongdoing in Pennsylvania can contact the Whistleblower Center at 866-714-6466 or contact them via their website at <http://Pennsylvania.CorporateWhistleBlower.Com>.

Call us anytime at 866-714-6466 if the finished product turned over to the government had millions of dollars of construction defects”
