

Football and Family: First Citizens Bank Partnership to Support Teen Cancer America at the 2018 Charlotte Kickoff Night

CHARLOTTE, NC, UNITED STATES, May 22, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Scholastic Sports Marketing, LLC (SSM) has announced a new community partnership with North Carolina-headquartered First Citizens Bank, the largest family-controlled bank in the United States, for the 2018 Charlotte Kickoff Night at Memorial Stadium on August 18, 2018. The partnership will raise awareness and funds for Teen Cancer America, a national nonprofit that works with medical centers to develop teen-friendly environments and specialized services and care for young people with cancer. Opportunities to donate to Teen Cancer America will be available throughout the event, on-site and online.

"This event is a tremendous opportunity to bring attention to the needs of teens fighting cancer," said Jeff Ward, who is on the board of directors for Teen Cancer America and is chief strategy officer for First Citizens Bank. "They're too old for the children's hospital, too young for the adult wards and need specialized units and programs designed especially for them. We appreciate the support of SSM and all the students and teams who will participate in this exciting evening of high school football in Charlotte."

The 2018 Charlotte Kickoff Night game schedule is as follows:

Scotland High vs. Butler High – 5:00pm
Mallard Creek High vs. Dutch Fork High – 8:00pm

Both match-ups will feature schools with proud, winning traditions. Collectively, the four teams have won ten state championships with a combined record of 97-13 over the past two seasons. Fans, of all ages, from the greater Charlotte Metro area are encouraged to join us for the one and only Saturday night kickoff to the 2018 high school football season.

Since 2015, First Citizens Bank has been a major advocate and sponsor of Teen Cancer America, which was co-founded by Roger Daltrey, legendary front man of The Who. Daltrey also recorded a new version of the hit song "Let My Love Open The Door" exclusively for First Citizens Bank and Teen Cancer America. The song is the cornerstone of the bank's awareness campaign for the nonprofit. The campaign asks people to "open the door" and help teens with cancer.

"We are grateful for First Citizens Bank's support of our 2018 'Charlotte Kickoff Night powered by OrthoCarolina' event and for National Amateur Sports assistance in bringing us together. This partnership will be a success because each organization values the health and well-being of the youth in our community first and foremost," stated Scholastic Sports Marketing President, James Companion. "SSM and NAS are proud to count First Citizens as the official bank of our 6th annual Kickoff Night event!"
