

Executive Education Academy Charter School Foundation to Host Golf Fundraiser at Iron Lakes

The Allentown charter school foundation will be raising money to support the school's more than 1,200 students.

ALLENTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, May 22, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Executive Education Academy Charter School Foundation "EEACSF" will be hosting a golf outing at Iron Lakes Country Club in Allentown to raise funds for Executive Education Academy Charter School "EEACS" student activities.

The foundation for Executive Education Charter School in Allentown is hosting a golf tournament at Iron Lakes Country Club.

The event will be held on Saturday, May 26 from 7:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. Participants can enter as individuals or as teams and compete against other community members in a series of games, including closest to pin, longest drive, and a putting challenge. There will be first place and second place prizes, as well as 50/50 raffles.

At EEACS, we strive to provide the best opportunities for our students both in and out of the classroom.”

Steve Flavell

The entry fee is 95 dollars per player and 360 dollars per team. This price includes golf, breakfast, lunch, food tickets, and giveaways.

All proceeds from the golf outing will directly benefit students at the Allentown Charter School. There are currently 1,200 students in Kindergarten through 12th grade at EEACS. These students have the opportunity to participate in a variety of academic and after-school activities, from journalism to Boy Scouts.

“At EEACS, we strive to provide the best opportunities for our students both in and out of the classroom,” says Steve Flavell, COO and co-founder of the Lehigh Valley charter school. “We are thankful for the community members who are dedicating their time and resources in helping us make this possible.”
