

Complete Discovery Source Named Best of eDiscovery in Midwest

National Law Journal Ranks CDS in Three Litigation Support Categories

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 1, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CHICAGO - The National Law Journal announced that Complete Discovery Source (CDS) was voted “Best of eDiscovery” in three categories in the 2018 Best of the Midwest Survey. This is the fourth consecutive year that CDS has been nominated and ranked in this poll.

CDS was voted the number one “Technology Assisted Review eDiscovery Solution” and “Managed eDiscovery and Litigation Support Service Provider” and was also named “Best End-to-End eDiscovery Provider” in the regional survey of more than 1,600 legal professionals named. Full results of the survey were published in a recent issue of the National Law Journal.

“CDS is grateful to be recognized by our clients and colleagues and we look forward to continuing our track record of providing them with first-rate customer service and leading-edge technology,” said Michael Milicevic, Managing Director of CDS Chicago.

CDS has earned its reputation as an industry leader by providing clients with flexible, personalized service and technology expertise with the goal of saving time and reducing costs associated with eDiscovery.
