

Enterprise Holdings Theft Victim Asks Lee Court to Consider Unconscionability of Adhesion Contract, Spoliage, and FDUTPA

Victim files Motion to Transfer and cites a number of due process abuses engaged by Enterprise Holdings and its companies National, Alamo, and Enterprise Rental

FORT MYERS, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, May 22, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ --

An injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.”
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

SubscriberWise, the nation's largest issuing CRA for the communications industry and the leading protector of children victimized by identity fraud, announced today the 'Motion to Transfer' filed by Enterprise Holdings' National Car Rental fraud and theft victim David Howe. The motion was filed today IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE TWENTIETH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR LEE COUNTY, FLORIDA.

The motion is an attempt to transfer the current case to the Regular Civil Docket with a Demand for Jury. The victim is asking the court to respectfully consider Unconscionability of Adhesion Contract (http://www.leg.state.fl.us/Statutes/index.cfm?App_mode=Display_Statute&Search_String=&URL=0600-0699/0672/Sections/0672.302.html), Spoliage of Evidence after the Tortfeasor failed to produce booth video surveillance that it said was the basis for a $502.80 financial extortion attempt, as well as Florida's Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (FDUTPA).

The Florida Statute is intended to "protect the consuming public and legitimate business enterprises from those who engage in unfair methods of competition, or unconscionable, deceptive, or unfair acts or practices in the conduct of any trade or commerce." According to legal literature obtained by the Plaintiff, FDUTPA affords civil private causes of action for both declaratory and injunctive relief and for damages in the State of Florida.
