STONEY CREEK, ONTARIO, CANADA, May 23, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Almex Group, the global Industrial Presses & Conveyor Belt Vulcanizers manufacturer partnered with Janus Worldwide to deliver end-to-end localization of its Operating Manuals, Promotional Materials, Product Brochures, Catalogues and MSDS sheets into multiple languages, ensuring that its international customers get the same seamless experience whatever the language.

“We are pleased and excited to be working with Almex Group to supply high quality translation, where terminology and accuracy of translation are paramount to Almex Group’s continued international success,” Said Steve Higgins, Sales Director, Janus Worldwide. “To achieve this we have deployed Janus Perfect, a comprehensive, multi-level, automated quality control solution that identifies errors and other issues that can occur at specific stages of a translation project.”

“

Janus Worldwide is the only supplier I have used that has provided responsive service, high quality translation output and at a competitive price, Thanks Janus!”
Karen Sibley, Almex Group

Janus Worldwide believes that quality control should include a check of translation quality using industry-standard metrics and individual requirements. Janus pays special attention to quality control. Always striving to innovate, update its technologies, and perfect its practices, the company has developed its own quality control solution called Janus Perfect, which forms an integral part of its Global Technology Platform (GTP).

The advantages of using Janus Perfect are;
_ Unrivalled final product quality
_ Reduced time to get a product to market
_ Lower costs
