

Stoney's Rockin' Country Nominated for Nightclub of the Year by The Academy of Country Music

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, May 23, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Las Vegas' country hotspot, Stoney's Rockin' Country, is nominated for Nightclub of the Year according to the Academy of Country Music. Stoney's is nominated in the Industry and Studio Awards category of the 2018 ACM Honors awards. The winners will be acknowledged during the 12th annual ACM Honors ceremony in Nashville, TN at the Ryman Auditorium on August 22, 2018.

Stoney's Rockin' Country's founder, Chris Lowden, commented from his headquarters in Las Vegas stating, "We're truly honored and humbled to be nominated by the ACM this year. I love creating an atmosphere for all artists, especially emerging artists, where they feel welcome and excited to perform or just hang out while they are in town. This acknowledgement means a lot to each and every one of us here at Stoney's."

Stoney's Rockin' Country has fast become the unofficial home for the country music community on the west coast. In 2017 Stoney's presented over 100 live country performers. They reprised their successful presentation of the ACM Tailgate Party for a Cause concerts in 2018. The venue generated significant sums of charitable revenue for the ACM Lifting Lives program and the Las Vegas Victims Fund, benefiting those who suffered as a result of the Las Vegas shootings and continues that support at the venue weekly.

"As the bands keep coming through Stoney's, I am continually pleased to hear their consistent words of encouragement like, 'we feel like we are at home here.' That feedback alone speaks volumes to what my personal goal has always been about, treating every single artist with respect that walks onto our stage. Being noticed and nominated on this level reinforces that what Chris and I love and strive to do at Stoney's is indeed moving in the right direction," concludes Jeff "Toad" Higginbotham Stoney's marketing director/co-buyer.

Stoney's opened a Nashville office in May 2018 to further collaborate with the music community.
