

Growth of Quality Assurance & Assessment Market to be dictated by High Demand for Long Term Evolution

Quality Assurance & Assessment provides a forward looking perspective on different factors driving or restraining market growth

HOUSTON, TEXAS, INDIA, May 24, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As explained in more detail further on, the term „quality“of a product or service means „the totality of features and characteristics which bear on its ability to satisfy the needs or requirements of the customer (user, client). In order to assess quality, we must therefore know, who is the customer and what his/her requirements are relative to a number of individual attributes, which together constitute quality. The service in question is „education & training “which for our purposes we define as the process of transfer of knowledge and skills about the given subject from the teacher/trainer to the student/participant using predominantly active learning methods.

Quality assurance consists of all planned and systematic activities implemented within the framework of a given quality system and, demonstrated as needed to provide adequate confidence that an entity will fulfil requirements for quality.

The following internal and external reasons exist for quality assurance:

- a) internal quality assurance: within an organization, quality assurance provides confidence to the management
- b) external quality assurance: in contractual or other situations, quality assurance provides confidence to clients and/or other participants.
