

John Salkowski Announces Memorial Day Support for Wounded Warriors this Memorial Day

Today author and CEO of The JRS Realty Group, John Salkowski, announced his support for the Wounded Warriors Project. The organization supports wounded warriors

KING OF PRUSSIA, PA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, May 25, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today author and CEO of The JRS Realty Group, John Salkowski, announced his support for the Wounded Warriors Project. It's an organization that provides year-round support for wounded warriors and their families. Salkowski believes Memorial Day is the perfect time to bring attention to this worthy cause and he has made a personal donation in support of them.

As a retired veteran police officer of 15 years, he's familiar with how important the service of our veterans is to our country. Returning to civilian life can be a struggle for any veteran, but it's more challenging for the men and women that return home with physical and psychological wounds. They deal with their injuries every day of the year – often for the rest of their lives.

Memorial Day is important. Yes, it is a time to get together with family and friends. But it's important to remember the real reason Americans get together on Memorial Day – to support our veterans.”

may be much higher. Considering everything these veterans have given for America, Salkowski believes donating to the Wounded Warriors Project this Memorial Day is something every American should consider.

Memorial Day is an important day on the American calendar. It's a time to get together with family, spend special moments with friends and celebrate. Without taking away from any of that, Salkowski believes it's important to remember the real reason Americans get together on Memorial Day – to support our veterans whatever their background.
