

StockMetrix kills app subscription fee for students in scholarship competition

NEW YORK, NEW YORK (NY), USA, May 29, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- StockMetrix, the stock market app available in the AppStore and GooglePlay, killed its $9.99 monthly subscription fee for all students who enter the StockMetrix Investment Strategy competition. The winner gets a full year tuition scholarship at his/her place of study.

We developed the app to help young people, rookie investors and pros make better financial decisions, develop their own investment strategies and avoid mistakes,”

Open to U.S. and Canadian residents who are full-time students of any college or university, the scholarship rewards the student who identifies the best strategy for investing in a particular stock. The winner will be notified in October 2018.

StockMetrix is a personal investment robot helping people develop and backtest their investment strategies. The app provides previously expensive, multi-factorial stocks analytics free of charge.

“We developed the app to help young people, rookie investors and pros make better financial decisions, develop their own investment strategies and avoid mistakes,” said Dos Doszhan, StockMetrix co-founder.

The app also announced upgrades to make navigation simpler, include a new tutorial, improve UI/UX, and make backtesting easier than ever.

Enter the contest by downloading the StockMetrix mobile app in the AppStore and GooglePlay. For more information on the rules, please go to the official website: <https://www.stockmetrix.net/> or follow StockMetrix on Instagram, Facebook, YouTube or Twitter.
