

Level Office Announces National Accounts Program

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, May 29, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Coworking company Level Office has announced the debut of its National Accounts Program, as well as its new National Corporate Accounts Manager, Kayley DiCicco. The program will provide a single point of contact for enterprise companies and real estate brokers serving clients with multiple office locations.

“As the demand for flexible, customizable office suites continues to grow, we’re excited to make the process of finding beautiful modern workspace even easier for enterprise companies and our broker partners,” said Bill Bennett, Founder of Level Office.

In addition to providing a single contact for clients with multiple locations, the National Accounts Program streamlines the office search process for corporate clients by offering easy access to Level Office’s network of office suites in 18 cities nationwide. Level Office’s 600 to 10,000-square-foot private office suites offer managerial offices along with a kitchen, conference room, and open floor plan space, as well as the flexibility of a 1 to 2-year term at affordable rates. In addition, all suites include access to meeting rooms and business services.

Pricing for office suites starts at $229 per person per month, well below that of the current global leaders in the coworking space for enterprise companies. Furthermore, Level Office’s all-inclusive pricing covers access to amenity space, all utilities and taxes, security, fiber internet and furniture, prominent lobby display of enterprise client logos, as well as espresso bar and beer on tap.
