

ProcureDox and Cleargistix Team Up to Offer Suppliers and Service Companies a More Efficient Way to Manage Businesses

MADISONVILLE, LA, UNITED STATES , June 6, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CALGARY, ALBERTA and MADISONVILLE, LOUISIANA – May 29, 2018 - ProcureDox Business Solutions Inc., a developer of electronic invoicing and data exchange solutions and Cleargistix LLC, a developer of digital solutions that replace paper or spreadsheet-based capture and management of information in the field, have formed a partnership that will assist oilfield and other companies in their efforts to increase the efficiency of their revenue cycles.

Through this partnership, Cleargistix and ProcureDox will be able to offer customers a true, end-to-end, digital solution for revenue cycle management. Through the use of Cleargistix's digital field ticketing solution and ProcureDox's e-invoicing and data exchange solutions, customers will be able to digitally capture data in the field and manage this information through every step in the review, approval, reporting and invoicing processes. The combined offering will allow suppliers and service companies a more seamless transition from paper-driven processes to fully electronic systems, streamlining communications between field operations to the back-office and reducing service-to-cash cycle times.

"We are excited to be partnering with ProcureDox to bring to the market a true, digital solution that will enable companies to streamline their field information gathering and invoicing processes," said Steven Toups, President and CEO of Cleargistix. "Our combined offering will be a game-changer for many oilfield and other companies looking to increase efficiency and reduce costs."

"This partnership continues to further our promise of providing 100% invoicing and smoothing our client's transition to fully digital field to payment solutions and allowing them to realize the many business benefits that will provide," said Ibrahim Hamouda, President and CEO of ProcureDox. "We look forward to working with Steven and his team at Cleargistix."
