RECOGNIZED BY
Best Lawyers®

Best Immigration Lawyer In Orlando

As an immigrant and attorney practicing for 20 years, I am humbled by the recognition.”

Gail Seeram

"As an immigrant and attorney practicing for 20 years, I am humbled by the recognition. Our law firm remains committed to immigration law and ensuring the laws are applied justly to those seeking to call America home," said immigration attorney Gail Seeram (<http://myorlandoimmigrationlawyer.com/>).

Seeram is the principal attorney and owner at the Law Offices of Gail Seeram, an immigration law firm. The practice is focused exclusively on immigration law where Attorney Seeram brings over 19 years of experience to every case and handles over 200 cases each year. She is particularly sought after for her experience with: criminal records, family-based immigration, deportation defense, and waivers/appeals. Seeram represents clients before both immigration courts and the Board of Immigration Appeals. Prior to becoming an immigration lawyer in Florida, Gail Seeram practiced in New York City.

Seeram is a past-president of the American Immigration Lawyer's Association (AILA) Central Florida Chapter and currently chairs the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Liaison Committee and the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) Committee. As liaison, she works with ICE supervisors and USCIS supervisors on policies and issues that affect immigrants and their attorneys in the Central Florida area. She was elected to these positions by her peers for her dedication to serving local immigration attorneys and their clients.

Born in Guyana, Seeram is a naturalized U.S. citizen giving her a unique perspective on the personal and legal challenges faced by those seeking to live in the United States. This shared background has helped her connect with many clients who are often nervous about the process and their immigrant status. Although she is an immigrant herself, Seeram did not initially choose immigration law as her specialty.

"I did not choose immigration law, the person seeking my help and assistance made me fall in love with immigration law and helping immigrants," noted Seeram.

Today, Seeram still credits her clients as the reason why she gets so much satisfaction from her work and hasn't forgotten her roots. She is the founder and executive director of the GAIL Foundation (www.GailFoundation.org), an organization that helps children in need by building playground equipment for orphanages in third world countries.
