SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, USA, June 7, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a thumping success, ZAGG Network debuted their very first Airdrop with a whopping 7000+ registrations in just a few hours on June 4, 2018. The company had a total of 279,990 ZAGG Coins on offer that will be distributed to the registered participants on completion of their Token sale.

ZAGG Network is a custom blockchain built to disrupt the Gift Cards, Benefits, Rewards & Loyalty Industry. In a big move towards consolidating the fragmented customer engagement industry into one, ZAGG Network has rechristened the industry as GBRL*.

ZAGG Network is a one-stop solution for businesses to engage with their customers effectively at an affordable cost, wherein, the customers here will get the dollar value for their accumulated points, all of which will be made accessible on a single platform. Built on a custom blockchain, ZAGG Network will allow seamless and secure creation, transaction and conversion of value within the members of the network. This functions without intermediaries further ensuring that the customer gets a monetary value to all the accumulated points earned from across the GBRL industry. Along with facilitating the customers to view all their disparate engagement programs on one platform, ZAGG Network also throws open a larger network of merchants and vaster options from where the customers can redeem the accumulated points and rewards.

“

The crypto world's response towards ZAGG has been phenomenal since the start. The success of Airdrop reinforces the fact that ZAGG Network is very well on its way to becoming the best ICO of 2018.”
