

SuiteAmerica Launches Web Application

With the launch of their new web application, SuiteAmerica remains at the forefront of Corporate Housing technology while providing a user-friendly experience.

EL DORADO HILLS, CA, UNITED STATES, June 7, 2018

/EINPresswire.com/ -- SuiteAmerica, an industry leader in Corporate Housing and Destination Services, has launched a newly redesigned web application at suiteamerica.com. This updated site uses the latest technology to provide quick and easy access to essential information about SuiteAmerica's award winning services.

SuiteAmerica Web Application

With its full redesign, the web application offers an improved user experience with rich user interface, accessible content, and a helpful community search feature. New global locations in Amsterdam and the UK are also viewable, and the engaging, API driven design promotes easy booking as well as 24/7 guest support. SuiteAmerica's interactive site includes an informative video detailing their Destination Services, viewable at the link below.

Additionally, the web application contains a new online guest portal that streamlines the corporate housing and relocation process. The portal is a one-stop-shop for reservation information, offers from nearby attractions, direct communication with SuiteAmerica, service requests, and Guest Books.

"We are using game changing technology and our nearly 30 years of excellence in customer service to revolutionize the Corporate Housing experience as we reinvent the way SuiteAmerica does business online," says Director of Marketing and Advertising, Brian Beller.

The launch furthers SuiteAmerica's success of being at the forefront of corporate housing technology. It also highlights the company's responsiveness and continued efforts to deliver a guest friendly experience. To see the new website, visit suiteamerica.com.
