

Jones Bootmaker updates EPOS and Stock Control systems with Eurostop

LONDON, UK, June 12, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Classic shoe retailer joins Pavers Shoes and benefits from integrated retail and EPOS solutions

Eurostop, a supplier of connected retail, stock control and EPOS solutions for the fashion, footwear and lifestyle sectors, has implemented its e-pos Touch solution at 42 Jones Bootmaker branches. Acquired by York-based Pavers Shoes in March, Jones Bootmaker has outlets across London and the South East, and now has systems that are fully integrated with its new parent company.

As well as Eurostop's retail management solution e-rmis, its stock control management, and e-cubes data mining solutions, Jones Bootmaker has installed e-pos Touch at each of its branches in a few weeks and have live retail Sales and Stock across the entire EPOS estate, with visibility of customer loyalty data.

Our experience gained in China, where we have completed roll-outs for customers with many thousands of stores, means we can streamline the process for our UK clients”

Phillip Moylan, Sales Manager, Eurostop

Phillip Moylan, Sales Manager at Eurostop said; “We are delighted to welcome Jones Bootmaker as clients. At Eurostop we are dedicated to providing systems that are easy and straightforward for our customers to install. Our experience gained in China, where we have completed roll-outs for customers with many thousands of stores, means that we have been able to streamline the process for our clients in the UK so that business can carry on with as little disruption as possible.”

A long term user of Eurostop systems, Pavers is also using Eurostop solutions for its retail outlets in India.
