

Abdul Saboor Aman's Top 5 Bars on Long Beach Island, New Jersey

There are plenty of places to kick back and relax on the Jersey Shore, but Abdul Saboor Aman's got the hottest beach bar scene on LBI already scoped out.

SARASOTA, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, June 13, 2018

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Long Beach Island, New Jersey has been the go-to place for summertime fun for generations. Throughout that time, the island landscape has morphed into an epicenter for both family fun and bar hopping.

However, there are definitely the must-see bars when doing the bar crawl on LBI. Luckily, Abdul Saboor Aman's has found them out and listed them for you to take advantage of.

Here are Abdul Aman's top five bars on Long Beach Island, New Jersey.

1. Nardi's Tavern and Grill

If you're looking for an epic time at the Jersey Shore, you must check out Nardi's Tavern and Grill. Nardi's is an icon. Located on the Boulevard in Long Beach Township, LBI, this place always has entertainment rocking and drinks pouring.

Plus, Nardi's has a pink bus that helps island visitors get home safe. So, if you've had too much and don't want to drive, this bus will return you to your hotel, free of charge.

2. Daddy-O

For those who are looking to sleep where they party Daddy-O is the place to stay. This large, luxurious bar has a rooftop bar that overlooks the ocean. It was named as one of the Top Ten Rooftop Bars in America by The Daily Meal.

Also, you'll never know what you'll find in the twelve draft beer handles, as they rotate often. (Yet, there's always guaranteed to be a special seasonal favorite available.)

3. The Marlin Restaurant and Bar

The Marlin Restaurant and Bar is a classic bar scene, amidst the beautiful sea-line of the Jersey Shore. This bar is the perfect place for the seafood lover and the bar-room enthusiast. Every day from 3 pm to 6 pm, enjoy Happy Hour, complete with $1 oysters and of course, discounted drinks.

There are also weekly events, such as Beer Pong Wednesdays and live entertainment.

4. Joe Pops

Joe Pops Shore Bar and Restaurant is the perfect place for exotic drink specials, and island fun. This bar features both an indoor area and Tiki Joe's, an outdoor bar and restaurant. Plus, there's both indoor and outdoor entertainment, all weekend long.

Between the outside acoustic bands and the inside eighties and nineties favorites, Joe Pops is sure to get you in the island state of mind.

5. Buckalew's

Buckalew's Restaurant and Tavern has served LBI for over a century. This is a good, old-fashioned, down-home bar, with plenty of hops to go around. Plus, the food that they serve is sustainable and cooked onsite.

This bar also has live entertainment every weekend and a drink menu that's aged to perfection.

Since the bar is open until midnight, every night can be a party, when you're visiting Long Beach Island.

To close, Abdul Aman ensures that these are the best five bars on Long Beach Island. They are made for fun and they will slash their way right into your vacation's fondest memories.

From Abdul Aman, be safe and have fun, while visiting these bars on the iconic LBI.

Abdul Aman has owned several bars and enjoys helping others find the best bars in the city.
