

ZAGG Network pitches way to BEF 2018; becomes Silver Sponsor

ZAGG Network once again becomes the onus amongst the topics of discussion by becoming the Silver Sponsor for BEF 2018.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, USA, June 16, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The third edition of the Blockchain Economic Forum 2018 is here and this time in San Francisco. The event to be held from June 16-19 is being organized by LATOKEN, a crypto exchange and multi-asset tokenization platform. Pitching its way to the forum and establishing its presence in one of the world's largest blockchain summit, ZAGG Network becomes the silver sponsor at the event.

The forum serves as a great platform as top-notch blockchain experts and cryptocurrency leaders will be speaking at the event including Sophia (a social humanoid robot), Tim Draper (Founder, DFJ Fund), and other blockchain leaders and enthusiasts from across the globe. The summit also lays ahead a wonderful opportunity to meet 2000+ investors, founders, scientists, political leaders, and media to grow your business and the blockchain economy.

Mr. Raj N Phani, Founder, Zagg Network Pte Ltd, is one among those highly-influential leaders who will be speaking on bridging blockchain and the traditional economy at the event. Raj will also manifest ZAGG Network's business in disrupting the GBRL (Gift cards, Benefits, Rewards & Loyalty) industry.

Having made sensational news in the recent times, ZAGG Network once again becomes the onus amongst the topics of discussion by becoming the Silver Sponsor for BEF 2018. With years of experience in the GBRL industry, ZAGG Network offers a comprehensive suite of services for businesses that can be used across GBRL programs as an efficient and better method for targeting and retaining their customers without having to worry about impediments like high operation costs and low customer participation.

ZAGG Network with its custom blockchain solution is a one-stop solution for businesses to engage with their customers effectively at an affordable cost where customers will get a Dollar value for their accumulated points, all accessible on one platform.
