

Two brand new games of Perfect World at E3: mobile sandbox MMORPG ReEvolve and battle royale FarSide

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, June 19, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- E3 2018 has drawn to a close with more than 69,000 attendees, posting the highest attendance since 2005. Perfect World brought its two upcoming games ReEvolve and FarSide this year and attracted a large number of audience, including Psycho Girl and everynightxRIOT.

ReEvolve is the company's first sandbox mobile MMORPG game, with exploration, creation and evolution as its themes, in a rich game world with a vast amount of interactive resources.

ReEvolve's Synopsis

"The future is upon us, and things aren't looking too good for the human race. War, plague, and evil have brought humanity to the brink of extinction, with one thing standing in the way of total annihilation-time travel. ReEvolve charges players with an important task: use the future's space-time tunneling technology to past eras and other planets in order to build a newer, brighter future. Will your contributions have you following The Shepherd, the human organization determined to set history right? Or will you be drawn to the corrupting, Cthulu-worshipping forces of The Piper? Use your M.P.D., a gun that can absorb everything from bosses to wild animals, to craft the world of your choosing."

As for FarSide, it's a battle royale game in which players are placed on the FarSide Arena. After skydiving, barehanded players will customize their landing spots and find a variety of weapons and survival equipment in the arena. You can find various vehicles to help you move quickly, use different firearms and accessories to improve your fighting and defending capabilities. Over time, the range of activities on the island will gradually shrink with the proliferation of poison gas, pushing players to the final battle against each other.
