NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 18, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- iDisclose, a New York based legal technology company, announced today they have joined Indiegogo's Expert Network. iDisclose will make available its LawCloud product to the worldwide Indiegogo community of entrepreneurs. LawCloud is a "smart" library with dozens of business and human resources documents. The suite of documents in LawCloud can serve a company from its formation to capital raising activities to preparing employment agreements and NDA's. Every document in the library prepopulates as the entrepreneur answers the proprietary questionnaire once, saving time and expense and avoids unnecessary repetition and inefficiency.

LawCloud formation services allow an entrepreneur to form a company in any jurisdiction at very competitive rates and have access to most of its future legal documentation requirements as it matures. The rest of the library can be purchased as a monthly subscription or form by form.

"We are very pleased to be included in Indiegogo's Expert Directory," said Michael Knox, CEO of iDisclose. "Indiegogo is a well-respected brand and recognized by entrepreneurs everywhere. LawCloud can help companies through all stages of development and growth. We are looking forward to a long relationship with Indiegogo and its global community of entrepreneurs."

iDisclose was formed to help small companies raise capital under the JOBS Act and is now expanding to support entrepreneurs with a wide variety of legal documents. Established by well-known corporate securities attorneys with over 25 years' experience, iDisclose seeks to make the experience of good corporate governance easier for entrepreneurs. iDisclose also offers automated filing for SEC Forms C, C-AR, D and ID, as well as a robust Private Placement Memorandum tool.
