An acclaimed and highly respected attorney, Rob Hudock, has a proven track record of protecting California employers, and operates a comprehensive practice that covers the six key areas of employment law that include: wage and hour, harassment/discrimination/retaliation, wrongful termination, employment consulting, employment agreements, and employee leave.

“California employment laws are confusing and complex. “I have defended employers against virtually every type of individual and class action employment claim, from inception through resolution, in state and federal courts, administrative forums (e.g., EEOC, California DLSE and DFEH), and arbitration,” Hudock continues. “My experience includes successful jury, bench, and administrative trials, as well as appeals in the California Courts of Appeal and Supreme Court.”
