

CONCEPT Professional Training & Palo Alto University Announce Summer Training Institute Workshop on Sexual Violence Risk

Dr. Stephen Hart will present a 3-day workshop on the Assessment of Risk for Sexual Violence at Palo Alto University August 20th – 24th, 2018.

TAMPA, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, June 19, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CONCEPT Professional Training, a global leader in online professional training in forensic mental health, and Palo Alto University, Northern California's leading school of psychology and counseling, announced today that Dr. Stephen Hart will present a 3-day workshop on the Assessment of Risk for Sexual Violence at this year's Summer Training Institute at Palo Alto University August 20th – 24th, 2018.

Summer Training Institute is 5 days of mix-and-match professional development workshops presented by internationally renowned experts in forensic psychology.

This year, internationally recognized expert in violence and psychopathy, Dr. Stephen Hart, will introduce the newest revision of the SVR-20, a structured professional judgment approach to the assessment and management of sexual violence in a 3-day workshop, Assessment of Risk for Sexual Violence: RSVP and SVR-20 Version 2.

Sexual violence—and, in particular, the diversity of both sexual violence and the people who commit sexual violence—presents tremendous challenges for professionals responsible for assessment and treatment. Actuarial risk assessment methods, which focus on identifying risk level based on statistical profiles, do little to assist identification of critical risk factors or the development of management plans in a given case. In this workshop, Dr. Hart will discuss the use of structured professional judgement (SPJ) guidelines in sexual violence risk assessment. He will begin by
