we truly believe in the process and personal attention that Bold Patents is able to provide. their modern approach and ability to work with clients anywhere in the US is very refreshing.”

Barry Henthorn

The spot helps individuals and businesses understand how to move their technology from Patent Pending, to Patent Issued, to moving their product or service into the marketplace, to making that return on investment they are looking for.

The spot is hosted by J.D. Houvener, CEO of Bold Patents and author of “Bold Ideas” where he gives a personal invitation to a free 30-minute video conference with no additional charges to qualified inventors. If you can't wait for the spot to start airing in Los Angeles or in your area you can call 1 (800) 849-1913 or log on to www.bold patents.com to get a jump on your consultation. ReelTime VR CEO Barry Henthorn also makes a guest appearance declaring that “the streamlined process not only saved me time and money, but it translated into a much better patent overall”. ReelTime VR has received patent-pending status from the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) for their non-provisional patent application covering apparatus and method claims for technology involving simultaneous capturing of 360 X 360-degree Spherical Panorama Images and Video.

This technology will allow any cell phone or other camera to instantaneously capture 360 X 360 Virtual Reality Video or pictures without any need for stitching. The VR content is compatible with and can be shared via 360 capable social sites in real time such as Facebook, or YouTube, and on any professional VR platform such as Oculus, Gear VR, Veer VR, PlayStation VR, Littlestar, and the HTC Vive.

J.D. Houvener, CEO of Bold Patents and author of “Bold Ideas” stated: “I am very excited to be able to provide a service that enriches the lives of so many through the ideas and innovations from ideas from all walk of life and levels of experience. Although not all ideas are patentable nor may have the power to shift industries such as the Patent we filed for ReelTime VR, many can come to fruition and provide income and prosperity to those who know how to navigate the patent process.

Barry Henthorn, CEO of ReelTime stated: “At ReelTime VR we truly believe in the process and personal attention that Bold Patents is able to provide. Having worked with numerous firms in the past, the modern approach and ability to work with clients anywhere in the US is very refreshing and simply just more effective. I encourage anyone who has a desire to see their ideas turn to a protected product to take advantage of the free information that is being provided.”

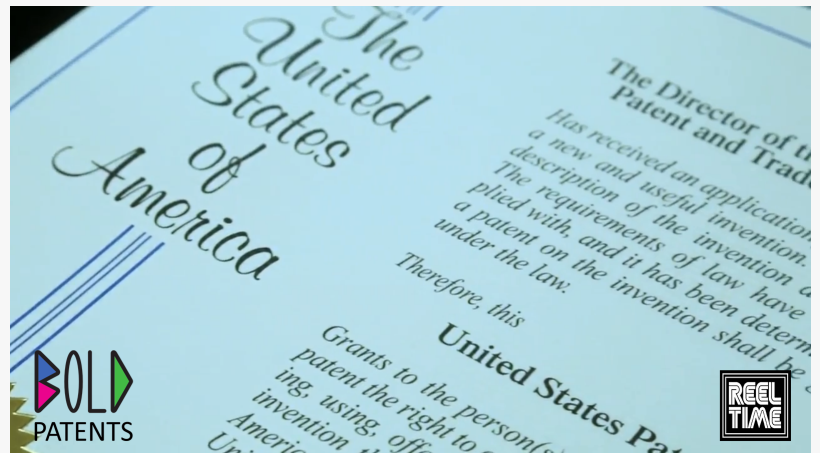

About Bold Patents Expertise in Patent Law: www.boldpatents.com - Our main focus is to help inventors and business owners secure top-quality patents on their inventions. The process of getting a patent from the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) is called ‘patent prosecution’, and that is our primary focus at Bold Patents. For many inventors and emerging businesses, protecting patents (as well as other areas of intellectual property) is a big deal and often causes a lot of stress and anxiety. Our goal at Bold Patents is to take the stress and worry off your shoulders and put it squarely on ours!
