

Lerner and Rowe 4 Pets for Vets $4500 Donation Match Benefits Local Veterans

Lerner and Rowe announce agreement to match up to $4,500 for KSLX Mark & Neanderpaul fundraiser that benefits Veterans living with combat-related PTSD/TBI.

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, June 19, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lerner and Rowe Gives Back announces their agreement to match up to $4,500 for a fundraiser that will directly benefit local Veterans living with combat-related post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) or traumatic brain injuries (TBI). All funds raised during KSLX radio personalities Mark and Neanderpaul's week long 4 Pets for Vets promotion will be given to Soldier's Best Friend to cover costs of pairing four specialty-trained dogs to four veterans at no cost to them. Donations can be made online at kslx.com/4-pets-for-vets.

Most of these service or therapeutic companion dogs are found at local animal shelters. The dogs are then trained and paired with a veteran to help with readjustment challenges and symptoms often triggered by a return to civilian life. Team training between a veteran and dogs takes an average of 6-9 months to complete. Associated cost equal $4,500 per dog.

Kevin Rowe, ESQ.

“As a personal injury attorney, I have seen first-hand the long-term emotional and mental effects that can result from a traumatic event and life-altering injury. Which makes the supportive services Soldier's Best Friend provides combat-injured veterans extremely beneficial. Add in the fact that the organization also saves the life of a shelter dog, the good work the organization does becomes even more admirable,” stated Kevin Rowe, ESQ.
