

Chainium announces Partnership with O-Mobile

Built to connect businesses directly to investors and simplify the trading of shares. Designed to democratise equity in developed and developing markets.

VADUZ, LIECHTENSTEIN, June 21, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Equity markets and capital raising are in the early stages of a fundamental paradigm shift. New technology and greater demands for fairness and transparency are driving businesses and investors to look for alternatives. Chainium are determined to deliver a real and viable alternative supported by a revolutionary blockchain infrastructure and they already have significant support from the business sector.

O-Mobile Multimedia is one such supporter. O-Mobile have recently secured $10m in funding from a Swiss based NGO to promote the digital economy in Africa. This will allow them to provide a range of financial services to over 500,000 SMEs and deliver digital economy training from over 1,200 O-Mobile Digital Business Academies currently being set up across Nigeria. Chainium have recently agreed to become O-Mobile's official business partner for equity capital-raising and shareholder services.

CEO of Chainium

Whilst our own equity blockchain caters for all private and public businesses, we continuously seek further opportunities to expand our partner model.”

Chainium*

The opportunity to work with O-Mobile is incredibly exciting for Chainium and their stated intent to democratise equity. O-Mobile provides the perfect partner in a developing economy, and perfectly fits Chainium's vision for the future of global equity markets. The SMEs in O-Mobile's network represent Chainium's future business clients and will begin the onboarding process as early as July.

O-Mobile are excited to partner with Chainium and be one of the first to take advantage of the new equity market offering. The Chainium platform will be recommended to SMEs in Nigeria and across Africa and will be used to for both capital raising and shareholder management. Having the ability to raise capital through secured investment is something currently out of reach of most businesses, let alone those in developing countries such as Nigeria which is a real growth hub in Africa.

O-Mobile will provide Chainium access to a huge number of SMEs who have been qualified and undergone due diligence and Chainium will provide a democratic equity solution in an exciting and emerging market.

Chainium CEO Sascha Ragtschaa:

“Whilst our own equity blockchain caters for all private and public businesses, we continuously seek further opportunities to expand our partner model. We see Africa as a key strategic market for us and we will continue to seek opportunities across other emerging and established markets.”

O-Mobile CEO Benjamin Aduli:

“Along with our recent digital banking partnership, this represents a truly unique opportunity to deliver financial products and services to our growing market. We are elated to be partnering with Chainium and to be at the forefront of this change in capital raising.”
