

Cleargistix and Energy OnRamp Team Up to Bring the Power of Digital Field Information Capture to Oilfield Companies

MADISONVILLE, LA, US, June 21, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MILAND, TX and MADISONVILLE, LA June 2018- Energy OnRamp LLC, a Midland-based technology group that advises and assists clients with the efficient utilization of existing and new technology and Cleargistix LLC, a developer of a digital field ticketing solution that eliminates the many problems related to using paper tickets/forms and spreadsheets to capture information in the field., have formed a strategic relationship that will assist oilfield and other companies in their efforts to increase the efficiency of their business processes, helping them achieve their strategic goals.

Energy OnRamp and Cleargistix both focus on oilfield customers, a market still dominated by the use of inefficient paper-based methods and other outdated technologies to collect information from the field and manage workflow processes. Through this relationship, both companies will focus on driving efficiencies in oilfield business processes through the use of Cleargistix's digital solution. The end result of applying Cleargistix's solution will be increasing efficiency and productivity of business processes to achieve increased cash flows and increased asset productivity.

Roy Jackson, President and CEO of Energy OnRamp, said "Our team is excited to be able to add Cleargistix to the list of channel partners that we utilize in bringing efficiencies to our clients processing requirements. The Cleargistix application fits with EOR's focus of bringing best of breed solutions to the energy industry"

"We are looking forward to combining the power of our industry knowledge and digital field ticketing solution with Energy OnRamp's desire to bring technological solutions that work, are user-friendly and bring efficiencies to oilfield companies.," said Steven Toups President and CEO of Cleargistix. "Energy OnRamp's consultative approach and connections in West Texas and beyond are a perfect fit for Cleargistix."
