

Fran Briggs Releases Best of Summer Reading II, 2018

Authors at the forefront in their genres

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, June 25, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- From bedside to poolside, a sun-lit hill or treadmill, the world is reading. American Journalist, Fran Briggs recently released The Best of Summer Reading II, 2018. The annual list is organized by title, author, publisher, a short synopsis of the book, and a link for additional information and purchase.

"Featured are international and award-winning, authors who are at the forefront in their genres," stated Briggs. "It's definitely something to get excited about. Collectively, the authors keep readers on the speculative edge, entertained, inspired, spooked, humored, sci-fied, romanced, and challenged. In between the pages is where readers will enjoy being lost and found at the same time."

The selections from Best of Summer Reading II, 2018, come on the heels of another dynamic list, The Best of Summer Reading, 2018. Both put the spotlight on a select few of endlessly talented and distinguished, literary artists.

Fran Briggs added that, "The Best of Summer Reading II, 2018, is a tool to help readers make quality decisions as it pertains to their reading selections—especially considering the innumerable choices available on the market. More often than not, reading great books is contingent upon knowing where the great books are."
