

Lehigh Valley Charter School Preparing Future Business Leaders with Unique Corporate Curriculum

Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown offers a business education program for students in grades K-12.

ALLENTOWN, PA, UNITED STATES, June 27, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown is offering students in grades K-12 a unique corporate curriculum not offered at any other Lehigh Valley charter school or public school.

Executive Education Charter School in Allentown offers a unique corporate curriculum.

Executive Education's business education curriculum provides students with an accelerated business and technology education. The program starts in kindergarten with lessons in software, graphics, and keyboarding. In middle school, students learn business applications, financial management, and investment strategies. In eighth grade, students begin on-site field experiences, followed by internships and career readiness programs in high school.

The Lehigh Valley is growing and we want our students to be a part of that growth.”

Robert Lysek, CEO and Founder

The rigorous program offered by the Lehigh Valley charter school helps the institution, founded in 2014, stand out from its neighboring school districts in Allentown, Whitehall, and Bethlehem.

“This program is intended to meet the needs of students and the Lehigh Valley,” says Robert Lysek, founder and CEO of

Executive Education Academy. “The Lehigh Valley is growing and we want our students to be a part of that growth.”
