

Street Fighter Meets Stubbins At San Diego Comic Con 2018

In collaboration with Capcom, plush creator Stubbins reveals SDCC exclusives

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, June 27, 2018
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Street Fighter's Sakura and Blanka-Chan are coming to San Diego! The newest additions to the Stubbins family are making their debut exclusively at Comic Con International 2018.

Comic Con Exclusives

Stubbins is an exclusive line of officially licensed plush characters made with high quality materials and innovative design.

They are proud to announce their collaboration with Capcom, bringing their iconic characters to plush form. To commemorate the 30th anniversary of Street Fighter, fans can now bring home Sakura in her fierce, but fashionable outfit and the alternative of classic character, Blanka, in his popular Blanka-Chan costume.

Stubbins is proud and excited to be a part of Comic Con this year. This is a great opportunity to introduce our line to some of the most passionate fans out there.”

Richard Igros

Limited to only 1000 of each, these exclusive characters will be available at San Diego Comic Con 2018 at the Yes Anime Inc. Booth #4729. To mark the special occasion, Yoshinoro Ono, the Executive Producer of Street Fighter, will be on hand to sign!

“The Stubbins brand is proud and excited to be a part of Comic Con this year,” says Richard Igros, Marketing Manager of the Stubbins brand. “Comic Con is a unique occasion where fans of all things pop culture gather, so this is a great opportunity to introduce our line to some of the most passionate fans out there. We hope that this will be the first of many more event exclusives.”

Make sure to visit the Yes Anime booth on Thursday, July 19, and Friday, July 20, from 11am-12pm to meet the mind behind the legendary Street Fighter franchise and to get your very own Sakura and Blanka-Chan Stubbins!
