IT Governance announces latest in free webinar series

ELY, CAMBRIDGESHIRE, UNITED KINGDOM, June 29, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ely, United Kingdom, 29 June – IT Governance, industry leaders in cyber security solutions, has announced a brand new free webinar, taking place on July 11, focusing on incident response and how it is central to cyber resilience.

Entitled 'Cyber incident response management: an essential tool for the GDPR and NIS Directive', this webinar is completely free for audiences to join and will help participants recognise and mitigate potential risks before they become problems that lead to reputational damage, loss of customers and hefty fines.

If you are interested in joining this webinar follow this link to register your involvement. Alan Calder, founder and CEO of IT Governance, will conduct the webinar and a full overview of what it will entail can be found below:

• An overview of the GDPR and NIS Directive compliance frameworks.
• GDPR – what the law implies: considerations and incident response management as an essential means of providing data privacy, data protection and cyber resilience; reporting requirements.
• NIS Directive: what it is and requirements for operators of essential services (OES); digital service providers (DSPs).
• General incident response management concepts and the CREST methodology.
