

Canadian Tourism Project Promotional Campaign Features Award-winning Musician Ed Roman

Out of 1200 artists, award-winning and critically acclaimed Canadian musician, Ed Roman is being featured in the Headwaters Inspired Project's tourism campaign.

SHELBURNE, ONTARIO, CANADA, July 3, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "Ed Roman is a man of many talents, and most of them have some relationship to where he lives right on the border of Melancthon and Shelburne. As an award-winning singer/songwriter, international performer, multi-instrumentalist, vegetable farmer and promoter of the Davis Dyslexia Association, Roman brings it all back to his physical location." - Headwaters Inspired Project website

Canadian musician Ed Roman is being featured as part of the Headwaters Inspired Project's tourism promotion. Ed is spotlighted on their website, in a promo video, and in posters for the region. Ed is a resident of Shelburne, Ontario, right on the border with Melancthon, where he and his wife own Black Earth Music and Pottery.

Where I live is so important to me. I need to be close to the community. It inspires my writing and playing. This helps define who I am.”

"Where I live is so important to me. I need to be close to the community. Here, I can talk to the mayor if I want. I'm in touch with the earth and nature around me," said Roman. "It inspires my writing and playing. I also like to grow my own food. It's simple, self-sustaining and empowering. This helps define who I am."

The Headwaters region boasts a diverse and very active arts and culture sector, and a vigorous approach to heritage preservation. The arts and culture sector has been identified by Dufferin County, the Town of Caledon and the Town of Erin as an important facet of economic prosperity in Headwaters and a direct contributor to community well-being. To further understand the impact of arts and culture on our community, Dufferin County, the Town of Caledon and the Town of Erin funded a project to develop an arts and culture framework in Headwaters.
