

Following £2 billion loan facility issue Macquarie to discuss sustainable infrastructure at Benelux Infrastructure Forum

After issuing a £2 billion loan facility, Macquarie Group are set to present at Benelux Infrastructure Forum on infrastructure and sustainable energy projects.

LONDON, WATERLOO, UNITED KINGDOM, July 4, 2018

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The 17th annual Benelux Infrastructure Forum is returning to Amsterdam, Netherlands on the 21st and 22nd November 2018, with an unrivalled line-up of senior industry experts sharing their knowledge of financing mechanisms such as PPP, project financing, and green bond financing, as well as alternative markets for future sustainable investments in the Benelux region.

In recent news, Macquarie Group announced the issue of a £2 billion loan facility, including £500m in green tranches. The green tranches will be initially used to support renewable energy projects, with future plans to invest in energy efficiency, waste management, green buildings and clean transportation projects.

The facility builds on Macquarie's significant and longstanding commitment to green energy and technology as a fund manager, adviser, financier, participant in environmental markets and investor alongside clients. [macquarie.com]

As Macquarie continues to build its reputation as a strong leader in green finance, they will be bringing their views and expertise to this year's two-day Benelux Infrastructure Forum in Amsterdam, this November.

Macquarie's managing director Willem Stitselaar is set to speak on day two of the forum, giving his perspectives on "Benelux Infrastructure and Green Energy Projects", where he will brief attendees on Macquarie's perspectives of:

- Views on onshore and offshore energy projects in Benelux
- The Benelux pipeline of Green investment projects
- A case for building out sustainable and green road maintenance PPPs

In addition to Macquarie, attendees will benefit from key topic discussions and briefings from expert speakers from leading international organisations, such as:

- Marguerite
- Allen & Overy
- ABN AMRO Bank N.V.
- Orsted
- Shell B V
- European Commission
- Meewind
- Allianz Global Investors
- AG Investors
- Otary
- Offshore Wind Consultants Limited
