

Leading Lehigh Valley Charter School Offers Simple Enrollment Process

Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown offers families a simple enrollment and lottery process.

ALLENTOWN, PA, UNITED STATES, July 10, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown is enrolling students in grades K-12. The enrollment process for the Lehigh Valley charter school is simple, ensuring all families and their students have an equal chance at quality educational opportunities.

Executive Education Charter School in Allentown welcomes new students with a simple enrollment process.

Currently, the school only allows 104 students per grade, with a total of about 1,300 students school-wide expected for 2018-19. About 70 students from the Allentown School District are enrolled per grade, while an additional 30 students from out of the Allentown city limits are enrolled.

Our process is very simple.”

Robert Lysek, CEO and Founder

“Our process is very simple,” says Robert Lysek, founder and CEO of the school. “Families fill out an enrollment packet, visit the school, and are either enrolled or put on a waiting list.”

When a student from the Allentown School District leaves the school, a lottery is held for the newly open position. Sibling preference is also given for new students.
