Author Shares Life Flows in Rhythm in the Dance of Life

NAPLES, FL, USA, July 10, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rhythmic movement. When your life flows in a rhythm that is what Author Jan Carol called "The Dance of Life".

Detroit, Michigan born, and raised in Connecticut, Jan Carol writes a true story that weaves love, marriage, dreams and faith.

It is a touching real-life story with valuable lessons that will restore faith in your dreams as well as life's what if's and wondering what would have happened if the plot had taken another turn, if they had made different choices, met other people, chosen alternative paths.

Life's decisions, big life moments in one's relationships can be a rough ride, but this book is an inspiring true account of how one woman took control of her own destiny.

Jan Carol is in healthcare management and is a Certified Legal Nurse Consultant.

This book will make readers feel the powerful motivation of the writer to pursue your dreams and your worth. So the next time you feel fear, embrace it.

Jan wants all who read her book to be true to themselves and never give up on your dreams. Sometimes, they do come true. They always do!

About the Author:

Jan Carol was born in Detroit, Michigan, and moved with her family to Connecticut when she was five years old. She always wanted to be a nurse from a very young age, and never strayed from that ambition. She dreamed of getting married, raising several children, and living happily ever after. Obviously, nothing is as easy as it sounds to a child. But, after meeting her true love at the age of twelve, she never forgot him. Jan has worked in the nursing profession in one capacity or another since old enough to hold a job, and continues to this day. She has degrees in nursing and hospital and healthcare management, and is a Certified Legal Nurse Consultant. Her wonderful husband, Jim, resides in a skilled nursing facility in Naples, Florida where she visits almost daily. She, her son, Jim, and her chocolate poodle Godiva, also live in Naples, Florida. Jan wants all who read her book to be true to themselves, and never give up on your dreams. Sometimes, they do come true.
