Crighton's The Christmas Spryte Encounter Series Earns Great Reviews From Readers

WILLARD, MO, USA, July 10, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Nanette Crighton is one of the most successful self-published authors of her generation. She gets the joy of writing children's books and during her interviews and features, she has always emphasized the importance of parents' participation in a child's milestone. To her, there is no such thing as a child who hates to read; there are only children who have not found the right book; and Crighton has proven that a child can never go wrong with her children's book series, The Christmas Spryte Encounter.

After the publication of the three titles for her series (Second Chance, Bad Behavior and Package Peeking) parents seem to have seen the heart that she puts into every story making it possible for fun to come in every value that she tries to relay to the younger crowd. Several good reviews have been put online and one of them jotted the right words for Crighton herself. Some of the reviews are as follows:

"Nanette Crighton seems to do what she feels is right! She puts you at ease with her sincerity and friendliness. I trust her as she seems to like her heart and motivations are in the right spot! Plus she does great work!" – Kristi V

"It's a great storybook, I enjoyed it I thought it was easy to read great illustrations done wonderful book hope you'll buy it too!" – Catherine Mae

"Very sweet, down to earth and helpful." – Maranda

About the Author:

Dr. M. Nanette Crighton often ends up in charge without intentionally seeking a position of leadership. Her big-picture thinking, endearing qualities and willingness to set an example simply compel others to follow.

"I can delegate tasks making people feel empowered rather than imposed upon," says Crighton, the medical director and owner of Crighton Aesthetic Studio. "I make a point to recognize contributions by others in a genuine way, and I make certain that I do my share of the least favorable job."
