

Americana, Blues Rock, Folk and Outlaw Country with Psychedelic Spice – Singer/Songwriter Lazer Lloyd Returns to the USA

Lazer has crafted songs on the road that evoke the pain many are facing across the world today; his message of healing and unity gives hope and encouragement

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, July 10, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lazer Lloyd, the singer-songwriter and virtuoso guitarist is kicking off his USA tour with four appearances throughout Southern California with his message of healing and unity through music. His strong social media presence links his community throughout the globe as he shares clips from his concerts when he hits the road.

In addition to the deep musical groove, Lloyd enralls his audience with masterful story-telling and hangs out to speak with everyone after each show - putting faces to the wonderful friendships he has started online.

"He puts soul into every note he sings and plays." Tim Parsons, Tahoe Onstage

"Johnny Cash meets Steve Earle..." Markos Papadatos, Digital Journal

"Razor sharp guitar and exuberant vocals." Downbeat

"Could it be that a rock and roll, blues, folk artist from Israel, who adds a tinge of the psychedelic, is America's inheritor of the mantle that was long ago left by Bob Dylan, Joan Baez and Judy Collins? ..." Life & Arts, The Wilmette Beacon

"Lloyd handles his guitar like it was an extension of his lanky but sturdy body, and the glorious noise that it emits sounds like wails and squeals emerging directly from his soul." No Depression

"Fasten your seatbelts!" wrote 1970's Rolling Stone rock music sage Gary von Tersch of the self-titled "Lazer Lloyd" CD. He added, "I'm impressed by Lazer's tight compositions", "deeply expressive writing, plangent vocals and crackerjack guitar and harmonica".

Lazer Lloyd, the singer-songwriter and virtuoso guitarist is kicking off his USA tour with four appearances throughout Southern California with his message of healing and unity through music.

Lloyd's first stop will be the "Blues for Sweet Relief" concert in Yorba Linda, California to assist the Relief Musician's Cancer Fund. He is headlining this event hosted by the Orange County Blues Society, at the Main Street Restaurant on July 29, doors open at 1pm.

Lloyd will then be featured at the Pico Union Project in Los Angeles on July 31st, The Siren in Morro Bay on August 1st, then Mammoth Lakes for the Mammoth Festival of Beers & Bluesapalooza on August 2nd.

Lazer will be playing his new hit streaming single "Backstreets" that has had over 600,000 streams on Spotify as well as his new summer love song "Love River" and cuts off his critically acclaimed album "Freedom's Child". He will also be playing gems crafted on the road evoking the pain many are facing across the world today including "Help Is On Its Way" and "Miracle".
